If you enjoy the laughter of the youngsters—the sheer gladness born of sunshine, and the great outdoors,
—if you thrill at the sight of their laughing, sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks,

—if you wish, now and then that years would turn back, and let you be one of them,
—be one of them anyway..

AN OVERLAND WILL DO IT

An OVERLAND will take you out with them, let you share with them the pure fresh air—make your eyes sparkle, and your blood tingle with the sheer joy of living. It will clear the cobwebs from your brain—it will bring contentment, happiness and health. These are the dividends an OVERLAND pays.

Be a youngster again.

BOY PAINFULLY WOUNDED.

Pleads in Vain for Older Lad Not to Shoot Him.

Columbia, August 2.—Refusing, it is said, to listen to his victim's plea not to injure him, Keith Wallace, a white youth, aged 18, this morning at 7 o'clock is alleged to have fired a load of small shot from a shotgun into the right shoulder of Raymond Cooper, a white lad, aged 12, as they and a crowd of other boys were assembled at the corner of Ashley avenue and 9th street in Olympia Village. Cooper was taken to a local hospital. The boy's attending physician, Dr. W. A. Boyd, stated this afternoon that while Cooper was painfully hurt, he did not think that he was seriously injured, although this could not be correctly ascertained until the youth was operated on. Wallace and Earle Coon, from whom Wallace got the shotgun, were placed under arrest by Officer Lewis Knox.

KILLS CONVICT; ACCIDENT.

Calhoun Guard Cleaning Pistol When it is Discharged.

St. Matthews, August 2.—Nathan Carr, a negro convict, was killed accidentally by John Gary Inabinet, a chain gang guard, yesterday afternoon near Bethel church, nine miles north of here, where the gang is camped. All the evidence presented at the coroner's inquest agreed that the killing was accidental and the jury returned a verdict to that effect. Mr. Inabinet was cleaning his pistol when it was accidentally fired and the bullet struck Carr, who was in the convicts' cage near by. Carr had served fifteen days of a short sentence, having been convicted of stealing several dollars from the store of G. W. Willard, of Port Motte.
